

We can get off at the Dominick Stop when we travel to 14 Henrietta Street on the Luas Green Line.

With Parnell Street behind us,
we will walk up the incline towards Bolton Street.

When we get to the junction with Boltin Street Dominick Street we will see a pedestrian crossing.

When we cross the road we will turn left and walk along the footpath.

We will pass shops, barbers and Declan & Donal's Deli on our righthand side.

At the street corner, there is a pub called The King's Inn.

We will turn right here and we will be on Henrietta Street.

We walk up the hill and we will see bollards outside of the museum.

We will cross the road towards 14 Henrietta Street.

When you arrive, just give the name your booking is under to the person at reception.

Enjoy the tour!
