

14 Henrietta Street

Transition year programme

14
Henrietta
Street

School tours just €5 per student

Uncover the layers of Dublin's history within the walls of 14 Henrietta Street.

Discover the everyday stories and personal experiences of former residents, combined with social and architectural history, to bring the house, the street, and the city to life.

14 Henrietta Street

Experience over 300 years of city life in the walls of one building.

How did a grand townhouse for an aristocrat and his wife, on the smartest street in Dublin, become an overcrowded tenement home to 117 people?

Join us to investigate the house and its stories. Your students will take a journey through time, analysing and asking questions along the way to uncover the history of 14 Henrietta Street and the people who called it home.

This tour is tailored specifically for Transition Year students and designed to encourage problem solving and debate. Students will gain an awareness of the social history of Dublin, learn about the context of 14 Henrietta Street and how its changes reflect changes in society.
